

TCU—SMU Athletic Training Workshop
June 14—16, 2018

39 Years STRONG!

The Athletic Training/Sports Medicine staff's of TCU and SMU invite you to be a part of a few days of fun and education about the profession of Athletic Training.

SESSIONS

BASIC...Designed to benefit the high school student with little or no prior athletic training experience. The basic session includes instruction in various aspects of athletic training including developing taping skills, the role and responsibilities of an athletic trainer and perfecting the skills necessary to prepare athletes for practice and competition. ADVANCED...Designed for the advanced high school student, junior college student, or coaching staff member who has previous experience working with injured athletes. This session covers additional information on rehabilitation, evaluation techniques and specific taping procedures.

FACILITIES AND HOUSING

Clinical coursework and classrooms will be stationed in the TCU athletic training room facilities. Recreational facilities will be available during free time, and fun activities or relaxation time takes place in the evenings. Participants will be housed on TCU's campus and will enjoy meals served in the BLUU, a fine university dining hall.

COST

$325.00 covers ALL expenses of this three-day workshop. This fee includes: tuition, meals, housing, athletic training room supplies and a reference notebook. A NONREFUNDABLE DEPOSIT OF $75.00 is due upon application. A special day rate of $250.00 for coaching staff members and commuting students is available.

The balance of your registration is due on or before Thursday, June 7, 2018.
